Cuban Events

November 1, 1962

Soviet and Cuban Media

USSR Internal. Press coverage light on October 31 and devoted principally to third country tributes to wise and courageous Soviet decisions. However, Tass reports five Cuban demands and notes support of these by panosloving people. Further notes that tension over Cuba not wholly dispelled and United States aggressive acts against Cuba continue.

USSR External. (October 31) Soviet actions respect to recent events distorted solely by ignorance secure universal peace. Short-sighted eastern politicians should not construe this as sign of weakness. Castro's five demands have support of the forces of peace. Soviet Union still with Cuba and does not decline responsibility for giving Cuba assistance. United States should, therefore, restrain its irresponsible actions.

Cuban Internal. (October 31) Radio commentators describe U Front talks useful in establishing McCuban link and more exactly defining Cuban position. Mikoyan welcomed as old friend. Mikoyan's statement reported in press and.
